

Legacy Grant Social Media Idea Starters

The image you choose is an impactful tool to help tell your story and get your post read, liked and shared. Here are a few ideas on taking and using the most engaging photos.

- Action shot of a participant in a training session, perhaps in a workshop setting or receiving hands-on guidance.
- Action shot of a person in an adaptive environment, such as engaging in an activity or interacting with support staff.
- Action shot of a mentor and participant engaged in an activity, such as a craft or a learning an exercise.
